MEMORANDUM FOR SQUADRON PERSONNEL

FROM: 367 RCS/CC
3990 East Bijou Street
Colorado Springs, CO 80909-6806

SUBJECT: Commander's Safety Policy

1. Our unique recruiting environment provides us with the opportunity to instill (at the earliest possible point in your airman's careers) the knowledge on how safety affects their day-to-day lives.
2. The task of ensuring safety, on or off duty, is not the sole responsibility of my safety staff, but is shared by each and every member of this squadron. You are my "functional" safety officers, and as such, need to make safety a part of your flight's daily routine, not a topic merely addressed before holidays or inspections. By developing a comprehensive and dynamic safety program, you can instill sound safety attitudes that will last a lifetime.
3. Please use the unit safety staff as your advisors to help develop effective safety programs. Protecting and preserving the resources necessary to perform the Air Force mission is a critical part of our job. We can't afford to lose the manpower or equipment due to complacency or lack of knowledge. Let's all pull together to make the 367th Recruiting Squadron the safest place to work and live. Remember, you are the Air Force's most valuable asset!
4. If you have any questions, please contact your unit safety representatives, MSgt Harvey or SSgt Boswell at (719) 554-1258.

THOMAS Y. HEADEN, Lt Col, USAF
Commander
