(cao 26 Mar 2020) myPers Secure- COVID-19 Stop Movement Excerpt:

NOTE: Please review the attachment in its entirety. There have been additional changes as a result of this EXORD.

1. Effective 25 March 2020 through 24 May 2020 (or otherwise ordered), a Stop Movement is ordered for all INTERNATIONAL travel for Airmen and their sponsored family members not under the responsibility of a U.S. Chief of Mission for all forms of official travel and movements associated with Permanent Change of Station (PCS), Temporary Duty (TDY), government-funded leave, service member personal leave, and all Contingency Deployments (Global Force Management (GFM) Activities (Attachment 13).

2. Exceptions to this Guidance:

A. Travel for the Purpose of Medical Treatment: Travel by patients and medical providers for the purpose of medical treatment for DoD personnel and their family members is authorized.

B. OSD guidance currently states, individuals who have already initiated travel (including intermediate stops) are authorized to continue to their final destination.

C. OSD guidance currently states, individuals whose TDY ends while this order is in effect are authorized to return to their home station.

D. U.S. Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM) is authorized to continue execution of the Joint Deployment and Distribution Enterprise as required to project and sustain the Joint Force globally. This includes forces (aircrews and mission essential personnel) ordered by the Secretary on prepare to deploy orders (PTDO) alert status, air refueling, Global Patient Movement, Mortuary Affairs support, inland surface, sea and air sustainment missions, support to other U.S. Agencies as approved by SecDef, and moves of personnel and equipment that support USTRANSCOM global posture requirements.

E. Exceptions for Contingency deployments (GFM activities): Approval authority for exceptions for Global Force Management activities is the Joint Staff Director of Operations (DJ-

3). ETPs will be submitted by the COCOM; further guidance will follow as received. It is important that deploying members remain in contact with their IPR and Chain of Command as there have been instances in which pre-deployment training and/or deployments have been delayed.

F. Retirements and Separations: Airmen retiring or separating are exempt. Travel will be subject to applicable travel screening protocols in Attachment 3. Airmen who are unable to schedule household good shipments or travel due to local restrictions or shelter-in-place initiatives may request changes to their retirement/separation dates via myPers.

G. Additional exceptions to this order may be granted in writing in cases where the travel is: (1) determined to be mission-essential; (2) necessary for humanitarian reasons; or (3) warranted due to extreme hardship. Approval authority for all other exceptions belongs to the Combatant Commander if the individual is assigned or allocated to a Combatant Command; the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff if the individual is assigned to the Joint Staff; the Secretary of the Military Department concerned for personnel under his/her jurisdiction; or the Chief Management Officer for the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Defense Field Activities Exceptions are to be done on a case by case basis, shall be limited in number, and shall be coordinated between the gaining and losing organizations, as appropriate.

H. Authorized travelers will adhere to the Force Health Protection guidelines and later guidance, if any.
